

Celebrating Social Workers!

March is National Social Work Month, giving us the opportunity to recognize the dedication and importance of our social workers.

At The Senior Alliance, we have a deep appreciation for the social workers who help us assist people to thrive as they live their way.

On our blog this month, we track the history of how social work came to be and highlight the barriers the field has helped to break in the U.S. Learn more about this, as well as the open position at The Senior Alliance for a social worker.
