

The Senior Alliance's 2025 Year in Review

Another incredible year is in the books at The Senior Alliance!

We are pleased to report a year of significant progress and public service.

In our latest blog, we share our 2025 Year in Review, a snapshot of the impact The Senior Alliance has had in the communities we serve.

We thrived in our mission of helping older adults and adults with disabilities live independently through comprehensive support, services, and resources. We couldn't do it without our collaborative partners, tireless volunteers, and helpful community. Your generosity transforms our work.
